For the purpose of this article, temporary assistance shall be defined as several minutes of assistance and cannot be used to reduce or limit the number of crew needed to run a production in each department.

- 10.05 A Working Department Head will be assigned to each department in which work is being carried out and such Department Head shall not be released prior to the release of Grips employed on such production in their department. The exception to this rule is noted in Article 10.09 (a&d).

The employer makes no guarantee that a position or call will not be reduced or cancelled.
- 10.08 If an employee is late for a scheduled shift the Steward or Dispatch shall immediately begin calling for a replacement. The Employer shall pay the second employee from their actual start time. The employer shall have the right to be reimbursed by the Union for any time period where the employee was not present if the end result causes a financial loss to the Employer. If the first employee arrives for work before the Steward or Dispatch contacts a replacement, the first employee shall fill the position and have the time that he was late deducted to the nearest thirty (30) minutes. The Steward and Crew Chief will meet with the client to insure the shortage of labour does not unnecessarily delay the work scheduled to be done.
- 10.09 The Union makes no assumed or implied minimum personnel call, except for the following:
- (a) On smaller calls only, the Working Crew Chief may also act as a Head of Department.
 - (b) For every work line in operation, it is recommended that there should be two (2) High Riggers.
 - (c) For every two (2) High Riggers, there must be one (1) Ground Rigger.

If such notice is not provided, and unless the Union consents to such cancellation, the Employer shall pay employees designated by the Union to fill the call an amount equal to that remuneration which the employees would have earned through two (2) hours of work at the applicable rate.

If the call is postponed without prior notice of twelve (12) hours before the original time of call, and if the call is subsequently canceled, then this Article shall be applied to the original time of call. Further, if a call is cut down in size, prior to the commencement of work but subsequent to Dispatch assigning employees to that call, and within the time limits specified above, and unless the Union consents to such cancellation, that call will be deemed to be cancelled as far as the persons released from the call are concerned and the same terms shall apply.
